

PUBLIC NOTICE

Effective March 20, 2020

Schedule is subject to change

The Conejos County Department of Social Services (CCDSS) will continue to operate under normal business hours but will have the following limitations in place:

- Customers will not be seen in our offices and should phone in to our general number with inquiries about their case. If you do not have access to a phone or internet please notify our front desk receptionist. Lobby will remain open for document drop off only. If you need someone to call you leave a number and message and we will have someone get back to you.
- Interviews for Public Assistance will be conducted via phone call please ensure that CCDSS has a good contact number for you.
- We are encouraging that all applications, recertifications, and changes for public assistance and child care should be reported via PEAK. <https://coloradopeak.secure.force.com/>
- All cases of child/adult neglect should be called in to the Child Abuse Hotline(1-844-CO-4-KIDS)
- You can e-mail questions to your worker directly.
